Re: Certification Of Compliance With State Lifeline/Link Up Procedures, MPSC Case No. U-14535

Dear Ms. Kunkle:

This letter is to certify to the Michigan Public Service Commission ("MPSC") that Nexus Communications, Inc. d/b/a ReachOut Wireless ("ReachOut Wireless", the "Company") is in compliance with the certification, verification and recordkeeping procedures for Lifeline/Link Up programs in Michigan adopted by the MPSC in Case No. U-14535 in its June 7, 2005 Order, and Section 316 of the Michigan Telecommunications Act ("MTA"), as amended. Furthermore, ReachOut Wireless has also adopted and implemented consistent state procedures. Pursuant to these requirements, I certify to the following:

1. That ReachOut Wireless complies with the certification, verification and recordkeeping procedures set forth in Case No. U-14535 and Section 316 of the MTA;
2. That ReachOut Wireless complies with state certification procedures to document consumer income or program based eligibility for Lifeline/Link Up prior to the that consumer's enrollment;
3. That ReachOut Wireless complies with state verification procedures to verify the consumer's continued eligibility for Lifeline; and
4. That ReachOut Wireless complies with state recordkeeping procedures for documenting compliance with all state requirements regarding the Lifeline/Link Up program.

In accordance with the state program and procedures, I am an officer of the Company and I am submitting this certification attesting that ReachOut Wireless is in compliance with the state certification, verification and recordkeeping procedures and that to the best of my knowledge, documentation of eligibility was presented.

Respectfully submitted,

Steven Fenker
