Biographies of Stand Energy Corporation's Key Technical & Managerial Personnel (Revised October 8, 2013)

Stand Energy has been involved in the purchase, sale, transportation and scheduling of natural gas since 1984. Stand Energy has long-standing relationships with a diverse group of gas producers and suppliers, both regional and national that offers a great deal of flexibility in gas sourcing. Included in Stand Energy's transportation mix are primary and secondary firm, plus pipeline storage in addition to some LDC on-system storage and customer gas "banks". In our almost 30-year history, Stand Energy has never failed to deliver required quantities of gas to end-use customers.
